A Little of Everything.

"Into the King Row and Crowned" July 18. The Keystone band gave a concert on Main street last evening. There will be baptism in the Baptist church next Sunday evening. C. M. Neale, marble dealer of Punxsutawney, was in town Monday. The Utopia Society will hold a picnic at Wishaw Park Friday afternoon. Rev. J. Bell Neff, D. D., will lecture in the M. E. church Monday evening, July 18. Harry Hyde, of Ridgway, had his right hand blown off July 4th with a sky rocket. The Jefferson Traction Company collected four thousand fares on its line July 4th. We received an interesting letter from Emericville yesterday, too late for publication. Beginning at 6:00 a. m. trolley cars leave every forty minutes from Reynoldsville to Soldier. The rains of last week made a big flood in the Sandy Lick creek Sunday. The lowlands were flooded. Rev. Charles L. Bradshaw, pastor of the Brookwayville Presbyterian church, and Miss Sara Swift, of Ridgway, were married July 6th. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, preached in the Presbyterian church at Brookville last Friday evening. Walter R. Reed and Ira Bowser were over in Clearfield county a couple of days the first of last week fishing. They caught seven eels. The Reynoldsville school board has elected Miss Lillian Lenker to fill the vacancy in the corps of teachers caused by resignation of Miss Nellie Dougherty. Alex Riston, wife and son, of this place, and R. S. Donaldson, wife and son, of Cleveland, Ohio, are enjoying their annual summer outing at "Sunset Camp" in Beechwoods. Theodore O'Conner, a lad about nine years old, had his right leg badly bruised July 4th when the tank of water for high diver bursted on Fourth street.

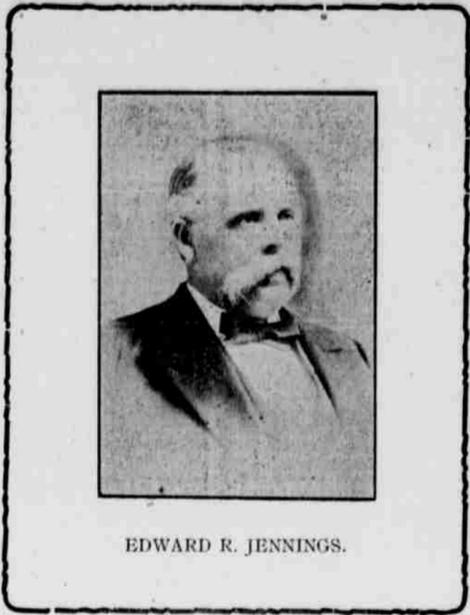

A number of young people of this place attended a picnic at Highland Park yesterday afternoon. Miss Kate Lydon got up the picnic. E. A. Hull, bookkeeper in the Jefferson Supply Co. store at this place, moved his family from Silver Creek, N. Y., to Reynoldsville the latter part of June. Dr. C. B. Cranmer, who was located at Wishaw, has moved to Iselin, Indiana Co., and Dr. Charles C. Hammond is now the coal company physician at Wishaw. Chief-of-Police F. P. Adelsperger was at Reading the first of this month after a fellow who was wanted here to answer charge of taking a horse and wagon that an other party claimed. M. W. Reitz, formerly proprietor of the meat market near Burns House, has accepted a position as foreman of the twisting department in the Enterprise Silk Co. mill in this place. Wayne Britton, son of W. H. Britton, of Beechwoods, who was taken to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh ten days ago and operated on for a very bad case of appendicitis, is getting along nicely. New rubber coats and hats for the members of the Citizens' Hose Company of West Reynoldsville have arrived. A committee has been appointed by this company to get a fire alarm for West Reynoldsville. Dr. S. Reynolds and wife, who were at Cambridge Springs almost five weeks, where Doctor was under treatment, returned home last Friday evening. Doctor is much improved in health but is not very robust yet. John Trudgen, jr., fireman and extra engineer on the Low Grade Division, has moved his family from East Brady to Reynoldsville. Mr. Trudgen will fire an engine on one of the east end local freight trains for a time. Dr. J. H. Hoffman and son, Norbert, of Pittsburgh, Brother Declan Joseph, teacher in Calvert Hall College, Baltimore, Md., and C. F. Hoffman, of this place, went over to Kettle creek, Potter Co., Monday to spend three or four days fishing. The annual district encampment of the Sons of Veterans, composed of the Reynoldsville, New Bethlehem, Brookville, Punxsutawney and DuBois camps will be held in the Mammoth Park, near the Mansion Inn, Reynoldsville, August 3rd to 9th. Full particulars will be published later. Senator George Allen Prescott, son-in-law of Mrs. Jesse L. Test, of Reynoldsville, and at one time a resident of this place, now a citizen of Tawas City, Mich., was nominated at the recent Republican state convention in Michigan as candidate for Secretary of State. The "Red Caps" of Reynoldsville and the "Blue Caps" of Rathmel, two juvenile teams, played a game of ball on the Reynoldsville grounds June 29th and the "Red Caps" came off victors by a score of 9 to 4. For Reynoldsville Arthur Farrell and Walter Shutt pitched and Howard Watson caught. The Baptist Young People's Union elected the following officers for the ensuing six months: President, Orris Shoeshley; vice-president, Irvon Rea; secretary, Maud Rea; corresponding secretary, Anna Woodford; treasurer, George Woodford; organist, Florence Harris; assistant organist, Phyllis Hays. Ninian Cooper and Jonathan Whitmore, two old citizens of this place, say that in 1857 there was just such a wet summer as we are now having, the crops were a month behind time. Mr. Cooper says he put wheat in barn that year the 22nd day of August, seeded out in June and harvested same in September. Supreme Lecturer J. M. Evans, of Sharon, and District Deputy D. W. Atwater, of this place, are making a lecturing tour this week in the interest of the Protected Home Circle at Curwensville Monday night, Clearfield Tuesday, Sykesville Wednesday, Roring Spring Thursday and Hollidaysburg Friday night. STREET CARNIVAL COMPANY.
A Full Week of Fun—Fire Company Netted About Four Hundred Dollars.
The DeShetley Carnival Company occupied Fourth street, from Grant to Jackson streets, all of last week and made that section of town lively every afternoon and evening during the week. A large number of people, especially young people, were sorry to see the carnival company leave town, as it was an excuse to congregate along Fourth street every evening and be jostled in the large crowd. The attractions of the carnival company were as follow: Palace of Amusement, Palace of Mysteries, Night and Morning, Boat Swings, Ferris Wheel, High Class Vaudeville, Electrical Theatrum, Nina, the only living ball girl on earth, High Dive, two Merry-go-rounds, throwing rings for money, three stands for throwing balls and knocking down "bables" for cigars, one stand for throwing rings for canes and umbrellas, and several other money making schemes. Hope Fire Co. engaged the carnival company to come to Reynoldsville and received a percentage of the proceeds. The firemen will have about $400 clear, including $242 collected by subscription from the citizens of Reynoldsville.
Shoulder Dislocated.
Mrs. J. A. Honn fell into an open ditch at corner of Main and Sixth streets Wednesday evening of last week and dislocated her left shoulder.
Fine Display of Fireworks.
The merchants of this borough, who were not allowed to sell their fireworks July 4th, donated them to Hope Fire Co. and last Friday evening the fire company gave a fine pyrotechnical display on Fourth street.
Democratic Candidates.
The Democratic National convention held in St. Louis last week nominated Judge Alton Brooks Parker, of New York City, as candidate for president of the United States, and Senator Henry Gassaway Davis, of Elkins, West Va., for vice-president. A picture of Judge Parker will be found on an inside page of THE STAR.
Lad Run Over by Auto.
George Walter Singleback, five-year-old son of Michael Singleback, was accidentally run over by an automobile on the evening of July 4th and had his right leg broken in two places below the knee. The accident occurred at corner of Main and Fourth streets. A gentleman from Punxsutawney was running the automobile.
Tearing Up Old Paving.
Thomas Evans, who has the contract to pave Main street with brick, set a crew of men at work Monday noon tearing up the wooden paving. The wooden paving is being taken up in sections and will be used to pave some of the alleys traveled the most. The wet weather of past two weeks has kept Contractor Evans from getting started at the paving.
Meat Men on Strike.
Fifty thousand workers in meat packing concerns of the United States went out on strike at noon yesterday and there is likely to be a meat famine in sections of the country where meat dealers depend on the packing houses for fresh meat. There are but few towns in this section that will not feel the effects of this strike. Some of our dealers kill their own cattle and will be able to continue to supply the home market.
Punctured Chin on Nail.
Frank Degnan, one of the lads who jumped off railroad bridge to escape being ground to death under a passenger train, was swimming at Hoffman's dam last Thursday and was badly injured by falling out of the ice house, his chin striking on a rusty nail, cutting an ugly hole in his chin. He also sprained his right wrist. The boys undressed in ice house and Frank was dressing when he lost his equilibrium and fell a distance of eighteen feet.
Knights of Pythias.
Valiant Lodge No. 461, Knights of Pythias, elected following officers for ensuing six months: C. C., Charles P. Dickey; V. C., Charles M. Dinger; Prelate, John Cottle; M. of W., Clinton S. Hartman; K. of R. & S., Wm. Copping; M. of E., Joseph Shaffer; M. at A., Harry E. Burns; Inside Guard, A. C. Murray; Outside Guard, Wm. Morton; trustees, L. D. Kleinhaas; representative Grand Lodge, Joseph Shaffer.
Birthday Surprise Party.
A. C. Pierce, a respected citizen of Reynoldsville, was given a birthday surprise party on Jackson street on Tuesday of last week, July 5th, 1904, that being his 79th birthday. There were eighty guests present, among whom were eleven sons and daughters with their wives and husbands, thirty-four grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren. They assembled at the home of Mr. Pierce in the forenoon, coming provided with choice eatables, and at noon a feast of good things was enjoyed by all. Among the birthday presents given to the aged father was a good suit of clothes.

MURDER AT SOLDIER.
An Italian Shot Through the Heart—On Man in County Jail.
Sunday afternoon, July 3rd, a number of Italians, who had been drinking, were playing an Italian game rolling stones when they got to quarrelling and Antonio Scenna, generally known as Tony Bruno, was shot through the heart and instantly killed. It is reported that there were a number of shots fired before Antonio was killed. Two Italians were stabbed during the riot, but were not seriously injured. Carmine Pasewzki, who is charged with the murder of Antonio, was arrested Sunday evening by Chief-of-Police F. P. Adelsperger and brought to the Reynoldsville lock-up. Tuesday Carmine waived a hearing and was taken to the county jail at Brookville. Two other Italians who did some of the shooting skipped out and have not been apprehended yet. Antonio was about forty years old. He leaves a wife and three children at Soldier.
Fourth of July.
The DeShetley Carnival Co., under the auspices of Hope Hose Co., was about the only attraction in Reynoldsville July Fourth, but it was a good drawing card and there was a very large crowd in town that day. The town was artistically dressed in gala attire, the work of Enterprise Decorating Company. Hope Hose Co. had arranged for a parade in the forenoon and had offered $10.00 in cash to lodge having largest number of men in line, and $5.00 to lodge making best appearance. The Keystone band and three lodges, Mazomania Tribe No. 341, Improved Order Red Men, Sons of Veterans and P. O. S. of A., made up the parade. The Red Men got first prize and Sons of Veterans second prize. The absence of large fire crackers and torpedoes, which were forbidden by the borough council, made the day unusually free from noise.
Leg Injured.
Wm. Booker and wife, James Justham and wife, Wm. and Charles Grieks, Wm. and Robert Frazier, Richard Honore and James Powell, of Barnesboro, came to Reynoldsville to spend the Fourth of July, and all of them, except Wm. Booker, returned home last Friday. Mr. Booker was standing near the tank on Fourth street on the evening of July 5th when the man made the high dive into tank and the side of the tank bursted out. Mr. Booker had his right leg badly injured and was not able to return home with his wife and companions.
Birthday Party.
Ninian Cooper, of Reynoldsville, who was 78 years old June 30, 1904, was given a birthday party by his sons and daughters at home of his son, W. W. Cooper, on the Cooper homestead in Washington township. Mr. Cooper has three sons, W. W. Cooper, Washington township, James A. Cooper, Warsaw, H. B. Cooper, Brookwayville, and two daughters, Mrs. Robert Hunter, Beechwoods, and Mrs. James K. Johnston, Reynoldsville, and fifteen grand children. They all attended the birthday party. There have been no deaths in the families of Mr. Cooper's sons and daughters.
Kah-Hoch.
William C. Kah, of New Bethlehem, and Miss Myrtle E. Hoch, of New Maysville, were married at the home of the bride's brother, I. M. Hoch, in West Reynoldsville Thursday evening, June 30, 1904, at eight o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Evans, pastor of the Reformed church at Oak Ridge. A wedding supper was served. Mrs. George White, of New Bethlehem, sister of the groom, and Miss Bertha M. Hoch, of New Maysville, sister of the bride, and a few other invited friends were present.
"Into King Row and Crowned."
Rev. Dr. J. Bell Neff will give his lecture, "Into the King Row and Crowned" in the M. E. church next Monday evening. This lecture has amused, helped, instructed and inspired thousands and ought to be heard by the people of Reynoldsville. You can never forget the vivid illustrations. Do not forget the time and place. Admission 15 and 25 cents. Doors open 7:30; lecture at 8:15.
Hon. W. O. Smith Nominated.
Hon. W. O. Smith, editor of Punxsutawney Spirit, present congressman from the twenty-seventh district, was given the nomination on first ballot for second term in the congressional conference held in Indiana, Pa., recently. Congressman Smith has proven himself capable of representing the people of the twenty-seventh district with honor and credit in the halls of congress and it was right that he should be given the nomination for a second term on first ballot. Tell your neighbors, friends and everybody and come yourself. For the next thirty days we will sell at cost any or all our chinaware, queensware, tinware, glassware, children's underware, children's hose, games of all kinds, base balls, children's toys, &c. W. A. Thompson.

CAREER OF AN HONORED CITIZEN CLOSED BY DEATH.

Edward R. Jennings, of Jackson Street, Died Sunday Morning after Three Weeks' Illness—Was a Member of Masonic Fraternity and Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

EDWARD R. JENNINGS.

AT 8:45 A. M. Sunday, July 10, 1904, Edward R. Jennings, Sr., an old and highly respected citizen of Reynoldsville, peacefully closed his eyes in death after thirteen weeks of suffering from fatty heart and stomach trouble. His suffering was intense at times, but he was a patient sufferer. He realized that his earthly pilgrimage would soon be ended and he assured his loved ones that he was ready to depart this life, that he was trusting in the Heavenly King. Edward Jennings was born at Cornwall, England, June 10, 1841, and was 63 years and one month old at time of death. In November, 1864, he was married to Eliza Jane Phillips, sister of Matthew Phillips of this place. They were married in England and came to America 35 years ago and located at East Brady, Pa. They moved to Reynoldsville 24 years ago and have resided here ever since. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Jennings three sons were born, Richard, who was killed at Big Soldier September 9, 1901, Edward and Thomas. The wife and two sons, both citizens of Reynoldsville, survive the deceased. Mr. Jennings, who was a Republican, did not take an active part in politics, but was elected twice as a member of the council in this municipality. He joined the I. O. O. F. lodge at East Brady 34 years ago and was a member in good standing at time of death. Twelve years ago he joined the Masonic lodge in Reynoldsville and the Masons had charge of the funeral. He had been a member of the M. E. church a number of years. Besides his wife and two sons, Mr. Jennings is survived by a brother in California and a brother and sister in Nevada. Funeral service was held at the family residence on Jackson street at 2:00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Rev. James H. Jelbart, pastor of the M. E. church at Johnsonburg, an old and beloved friend of Mr. Jennings, assisted by Rev. Perry A. Reno, pastor of the Reynoldsville M. E. church. Rev. Jelbart selected his text from Numbers 23:10 "Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." The beautiful burial ceremony of the Masonic lodge was conducted at the grave in the Reynoldsville Cemetery by Worshipful Master Joseph M. Cathers. The Masons and Odd Fellows attended the funeral in a body. The floral tributes consisted of an anchor from W. W. Wiley and W. H. Bell, Masonic emblem, compass and square, from John M. Read Lodge F. & A. M., two bouquets from Presbyterian church, bouquets from Mrs. L. J. McEntire, Mrs. J. S. Abernathy and Mrs. J. C. Hirst. The following out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral: Mrs. Kate Phillips and three sons, of DuBois, Mark and Richard Pollard, of East Brady.
Public Installation.
Irene Assembly No. 18, Pythian Sisterhood of Reynoldsville, held public installation in the P. O. S. of A. hall at nine o'clock last night. The following officers were installed: Past Chancellor, Mrs. J. A. London; C. C., Mrs. Charles P. Dickey; V. C., Mrs. Patsy Hays; Mistress at Arms, Mrs. Wm. Tucker; Prelate, Mrs. Ellen Pyle; Mistress of Finances, Mrs. C. S. Hartman; Assistant Mistress at Arms, Miss Anne Hinderliter; Mistress of Exchange, Mrs. J. F. Hinderliter; Inner Guard, Mrs. J. Kaufman; Outer Guard, Mrs. C. Mohney; Mystic One, Mrs. Thomas Maxwell; Keeper of Records, Mrs. S. E. Wisor.
Jumped to Escape Death.
On the afternoon of June 29 six boys of this place, ranging in age from five to fourteen years, escaped a horrible death by jumping off Pennsylvania railroad bridge, west of the big cut below town, as the westbound fast line shot out of the cut running at rate of 35 miles an hour. The six boys, Frank Degnan, Nathan and Thomas Edelblute, Fred Mohney, James McKay and Gerald Bolton, were going for berries and were crossing the railroad bridge. They were too far on the bridge to run back and could not cross the bridge ahead of train and their only escape was to jump off, a distance of twenty-two feet. As the bridge is on a curve at end of cut the boys had to act quickly and one of them yelled to his companions to jump. Frank Degnan, one of the older boys, jumped, and it was well that he did, for Gerald Bolton, the five-year-old lad, laid down and grabbed the rail with both hands and would have been cut to pieces, but Degnan picked Gerald up and dropped him off the bridge and then jumped himself not a second too soon to escape the iron monster. Some of the boys fall among rocks and were badly bruised and stunned. A couple of them were unconscious for a few minutes. Had the boys been far enough on the bridge to have jumped into the creek some of them would have been drowned. Andy Denny, the engineer of train, succeeded in stopping his train on the bridge, but too late to have saved the boys' lives had they not jumped. Some of the passengers ran down and carried the unconscious boys up to railroad track. This is another warning of the danger of walking across railroad bridges.

MERRY WEDDING BELLS.
Many Couples Unite in the Holy Bonds of Matrimony.
POLLITT-MCKEE.
H. J. Pollitt, superintendent of the Sykes Woolen Mills Co., and Mrs. Esie Calvin McKee, were married at the residence of the bride on Fifth street at 3:00 p. m., Thursday, June 30, 1904, in the presence of the family and several relatives. Rev. A. D. McKay, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated. Ruth McKee, eleven-year-old daughter of bride, played the wedding march. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Pollitt left here on the 5:27 p. m. train the same day on a ten day wedding trip to the World's Fair at St. Louis, Mo. They thought they were slipping away quietly, but when they got to the P. R. R. station to take train they found a number of young ladies there with a generous supply of rice which they showered on Mr. and Mrs. Pollitt. This couple are well known and highly respected in Reynoldsville and their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for a pleasant and prosperous journey down life's pathway. Mrs. Pollitt is a member of the Presbyterian Work Society and the ladies of that society, all married with one or two exceptions, serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Pollitt Monday evening of this week. Tin horns, cow bells, sleigh bells and other noise producers, were used in the serenade. After the serenade the Work Society ladies presented Mrs. Pollitt with a set of silver knives and forks and several pieces of china.
